MRS. ZELLA WEIRICH, former Sierra Madre resident, displays her painting, "The Hill House," to Mrs. Linda Johns (left), branch assistant of the East Pasadena Office of the Imperial Savings & Loan Association. Mrs. Weirich has brought to the Foothill & Michillinda office of Imperial Savings 39 paintings representing her largest one-woman art show in more than four decades of professional painting. Her show opens today and the public is welcomed.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE CITY COUNCIL

His Honor Mayor Ralph R. Rule
Councilmen, John Simons, Robert Hartman,
James Abernethy and Gordon Rudolph

Gentlemen:

You are about to make a selection of one of the top Staff members of the City Administration, that of Chief of Police.

We elected you to office and have given you the right to make this selection; we are definitely not questioning your wisdom of doing so, but we would like to make a few suggestions along that line that may help you in your decision.

This time we would like for you to select a "Working Chief," one that is on the job 90 per cent of the time, rather than teaching in school or going to school. We ask that you select a man who will command the respect of all officers, making them want to work for the objectives of the new chief instead of behind the scenes bickering and a show to the general public of unhappiness.

We would also like you to give consideration to a man who has the "Guts" to make decisions and carry them out; one who has no favorites, nor will allow special favors to be granted; one that will treat all people on an equal basis. One that will have no "Fair Hairs" on his staff, and one that will keep the Morale of the department at an all time high.

Twenty good men answered your call; the examination and Oral Board gave you a selection of the top of these men. Weigh this right to the hilt. We are all proud of our Police Department and we want the best men available that we can afford as Taxpayers.

Our thanks for reading.

THE EDITOR

HI! GRANDPA — Mrs. Jill Martin and her twins Kelley and Jacquie of 409 W. Grandview, visit with Mrs. Martin's father Mr. Albert Lindekens of San Clemente outside his room at South Coast Community Hospital, South Laguna. Hospital regulations do not permit visitors under 18 in patient areas.

City Officials Give Hand To Scouting

Our city officials are continuing to graciously lend a much needed hand in our local Scouting program. Recently Mayor Ralph Rule and Councilman John Simons and former Councilman Edmund Wagner (now Four Canyons District Chairman) assisted Marcus Woodward, District Advancement and Awards Chairman, on an Eagle Scout Board of Review on the applications of Randy Starrett and Ralph Stearns of Troop 374. Wednesday evening City Administrator Norman Boehm and Herman Ohs assisted Mr. Woodward on an Eagle Scout Board of Review on the application of Michael Fricke, also of Troop 374. While applications of the three young men were enthusiastically approved by the above Boards, they must yet be approved by the San Gabriel Valley Council and the National Council.

Imperial Savings To Display Paintings By Zella Weirich

A highly attractive and decorative display of 39 paintings by Zella Weirich of Arcadia opens today for a one-month art show at the East Pasadena Office of the Imperial Savings and Loan Association of Newport-Pasadena at Foothill and Michillinda, Pasadena.

Her display is her largest one-woman show and represents more than four decades of dedicated professional art expertise according to Creath B. Smiley, assistant vice president and manager of the East Pasadena office. Her show is open to the public.

Among her oils being displayed is her prize-winning painting, "Sunflowers." This painting won first prize in the professional oils division in the 1970 Art Loan Festival sponsored by the Friends of the Arcadia Public Library.

Mrs. Weirich, a native of Missouri, lived in Sierra Madre from 1945 until 1952 when she moved to her present studio home at 1752 Santa Anita in Arcadia. A former Hollywood wardrobe executive as well as a professional artist, she has enjoyed colorful careers encompassing the movie greats and art.

As head of the wardrobe department of the world-famous Fox Studios, she designed movie costumes for such Hollywood stars as Carole Lombard, Alice Faye and Shirley Temple. One of her more interesting wardrobe tasks was the design of costumes for the Dionne quintuplets for the movie, "The Country Doctor." Two of these costumes, worn by Emily and Yvonne, are on display at Imperial Savings for the first time.

Her sparkling paintings — diversified as to subject and varied in style — have been exhibited widely and have brought her innumerable honors.

Expense Fund Over the Top

From the wonderful and outstanding support of the citizens of Sierra Madre and surrounding area, the Sierra Madre Fire Department made their quota for expenses of their 50th Anniversary as the drive came to a close late Sunday evening.

Listed on pages 12 and 13 of this issue an attempt to list the names of those that contributed to this affair is made, but please do not be unhappy if your name does not appear. Many of you contributed to the Contestants, who for some reason or another, lost the receipt slips and the names of the contributors; so to those we give a special thanks and great consideration.

Trail Race For May 29

The Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team is again sponsoring the annual Mt. Wilson Trail Race. This year, the race is being held on Saturday, May 29, starting at 10:30 a.m. Starting point is Kersting Court and the race will travel up Baldwin, across Mira Monte and then to the trail. The runners will turn around at Orchard Camp and retrace their paths to the finish line at Baldwin and Kersting Court.

This is an AAU Sanctioned race and over 100 runners are expected to participate. Prizes will be awarded in the following categories: Elementary school, junior high, high school, open and women.

The winner with the best overall time will have his name inscribed on the perpetual trophy, which was donated some years ago by R. Robert Evans, editor of the Sierra Madre News.

Entry blanks are available from merchants exhibiting the bright yellow Race posters or by calling Jerry Meier, 355-6257.

This race annually attracts many of the nation's top runners, and distributing trophies this year will be Tracy Smith, world's record holder for the three mile run, and holder of the record for the 9½ mile Mt. Wilson trail race. Tracey set the record in 1965 with a time of 57 minutes. Also present, and running in the race, will be the winner of the 1937 race, Joe Worley.

The race will be the kick-off for Search and Rescue Days, the annual fund drive for the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team.

Merchants Give Fabulous Benefits To Firefighters

The number of people and firms that gave assistance to the Sierra Madre Volunteer Firefighters on their 50th Anniversary Celebration are many. The Department has tried to list all those who they feel should have special recognition on pages 12 and 13 in this issue of the News, however should any be missed it is entirely due to the shortness of time and the lack of communications between the department members. Those people, individuals, clubs and merchants are also given a hearty thanks.

Special mention, because they went further, much further than was expected goes to Gullett & Harris, Feminine Fashions at No. 1 Kersting Court for their fabulous discounts on the wardrobe of the Firehouse Queen and her three Swinging Flames.

To Ralph and Ann Hurwit of Ralphs Shoes, who likewise leaned way over backwards in giving the highest quality shoes at the lowest possible prices for the Girls as well as the Honorary Chief and his three Captains. Purses, hose, and sox were also given special attention by this firm.

To Youngland and Rose Zapata for her hard work and special prices on the boys uniforms, and some clothing accessories.

To Mr. Man, the headquarters in San Gabriel and the valley for Municipal Uniforms of all branches of the services for their special help, recognition and price on the hats and accessories for the boys.

An extra special thanks to Ann Graves, Jane Buchan who put in many hours planning for the Boys wardrobe and to Opal Grippi and Carol Ludden for their untiring work on behalf of the girls. These Fire Wives were working and planning since last February.

These are just part of the acts of consideration that were given to the Firefighters, and these particular ones made it possible to dress the winners of the contest in good high class clothing for the festivities.

Blood Bank In Sierra Madre Mon., May 10

Southern California blood donors can now give blood to the Red Cross at intervals of 56 days, instead of 84 days, according to Mrs. Ruth Barden, Blood Program Chairman for the Sierra Madre Branch, American National Red Cross.

The Blood Program Chairman said the interval between donations was shortened by recommendation of the Los Angeles County Medical Advisory Committee to the Red Cross Blood Program, and it brings California in line with the rest of the nation, which has used the shorter interval for some years.

Dr. Eugene P. Adashek, Medical Director of the Red Cross Blood Program in Los Angeles and Orange Counties, said the new, shorter interval is medically safe — the body replenishes the blood in a very short time. He added that the change to the new interval was necessitated by the increased need for blood and the preference of hospitals for the blood collected in the Red Cross program over that supplied by commercial banks.

"Increasing use of open-heart surgery and needs of wounded Vietnam veterans have both helped create a shortage of blood," Dr. Adashek said. "Also, current methods of testing for hepatitis virus are better than formerly, but still not 100 per cent accurate, so we

Sierra Madre To Enter 1972 Parade

The City of Sierra Madre has accepted an invitation to enter a float in the 83rd annual Rose Parade, January 1, 1972, in Pasadena.

The invite was extended by Tournament of Roses president Virgil J. White on behalf of the Association's executive committee.

Theme of the upcoming festival, which will feature 60 floats, 21 bands and 180 equestrians, is "The Joy of Music."

Sierra Madre has participated in 39 previous parades, and the last 14 in a row. The city captured the Theme Prize in 1958 and has won 14 class awards.

This year's entry, "Animal Crackers," was judged first in its class.

Owen Thomas is the current president of the Sierra Madre Rose Float Association.

Evans, Evans Catherwood Cadot Winners

The desire of the Firefighter Children to get in "The Game" created a second contest in the selling of the 50th Anniversary Medallions. With this in mind the Firefighters put up as prizes for the Girls first place a $25.00 Gift certificate and 2nd prize a $15.00 Gift certificate from Gullett and Harris. For the Boys, the first winner had a selection of 4 Field Box tickets to either a Dodger or Angel Baseball game and the 2nd winner two seats at the baseball park.

Little, 8-year old, Robin Evans kicked off the contest with a fabulous lead which she maintained throughout the two weeks, ending on top of the heap of seven girls to win the top prize.

Her Sister, very much put out, over the hard work and success of Robin, Candace Evans came in second to take the second prize. With only two boys vieing for the prizes in the boys division, each was guaranteed to be a winner, but Robert Catherwood took the lead and held on to it to the finish with Bill Cadot taking the second spot.

Here is the ways things ended up at midnight on Saturday evening as all contestants made their final reports:

Bob Catherwood	47,150

Candace Kay Evans	138,500

180 Boy Scouts Attend This Year's Camporee

The Four Canyons District of the San Gabriel Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, held a Camporee at Bailey Canyon Park in the City of Sierra Madre, April 23, 24 and 25.

With all of the patrols in the Four Canyons District present at the Camporee the attendance numbered approximately 180 boys and 65 adults, making this the second year in succession that there has been 100 per cent patrol attendance of Four Canyons District patrols.

The Camporee is an annual event, where the patrols of each troop show their camping equipment and compete in events involving various basic skills in Scouting. (Skill events were held in the adjoining field of the Passionist Fathers' Monastery.) Awards are given to all competing patrols, based on their total achievement.

Skills involved are camping proficiency, first aid, signalling, nature and observation. Points are also awarded for completness of equipment at time of entry. Each patrol competes in events involving these skills.

From year to year the participating patrols have become more proficient in the skills, and this year, the patrols gave an outstanding demonstration of skills, exceeding in excellence anything previously achieved.

It is possible to earn a total of 1200 points in all of the events. There are four classes of awards given, based on the points earned: Presidential; Award of Merit and Honor; Award of Merit; and Participation Award.

Of the 45 patrols participating, 24 received Presidential Awards; 14 received Award of Honor and Merit; 4 received Award of Merit; and 3 received Participation Awards.

Know Your Town

Q:—Having been in contact with some Monrovia people, I have a question. Are we not foolish to build a Police and Fire station when we are very close to the County taking over those services as they are doing in so many cities? — KEP

A:—This will be many years from now, maybe as much as ten to fifteen. Your Volunteer Fire Department costs you annually about $40,000. The County would require paid men around the clock and is estimated to cost around $285,000 per year. Your Police Department costs you around $285,000 per year, and only the other day the County announced that one man, one patrol unit would cost the cities $278,000 per year. Do you honestly think the City of Sierra Madre could afford this kind of luxury, plus skeleton services?

Q:—I hear there is a film and explanation of facts on all the bond issues. How does one go about seeing this film and listening to the facts?—TRE

A:—Easy, call Norman Boehm at City Hall, he will give you the next showing; but better yet, get in touch with Ken Kneale and arrange for a showing at your home over coffee and cookies. You will get a lot of good information and can have discussion at the same time.

Beisswinger Up To Old Tricks Again; Pulling Facts & Figures Out of Air

In a mailer sent to Sierra Madreans this past week, relative to the bond issues, Vic Beisswinger, disappointed and bitterly defeated candidate for City Council at the past election, is again pulling facts and figures out of thin air, attempting to sway the people. Below is the true facts relative to the subjects that he discussed in his mailer.

The rumors given are hereby checked out by Ken Kneale, chairman of the Citizens Bond Issue Steering Committee, who said. "We do not want to win the election by giving the people the wrong FACTS, neither do we want to LOSE it by someone else misleading the people. Here is what I have to say relative to Mr. Beisswinger's mailer. Please call me if you want detailed facts."

CARROT TOP

Well, it is now May 6 and I do not wake up anymore screaming and sweating and seeing those Goldine Medallions running across my bed. Course everyone told me that it would soon settle down right after May 1st, but brother I though May 1st would never come.

— CT —

On February 27 I had 17,656 of those things hung around my neck; well we made the required amount of expense money, and this I give solemn thanks to the many considerate people of the community who want to see the Firefighters do a first class job.

— CT —

Of course I had it all figured out that 12,227 people in town would sop up those medallions like they were going out of style. I know better today. Sierra Madre, with Arcadia, Pasadena, and Monrovia thrown in for good measure, plus all the moms and dads showed that we only sold around 13,000. So guess we have some mighty fine poker chips left over.

— CT —

Anyway, it was a mighty fine celebration, and this writer wishes to take this opportunity to give his profound thanks to the many, many good citizens who did respond with their donations, and those that responded to the Children in the contest.

— CT —

Then of course I want to give my special thanks and approval to those children. Everyone of the 12 fought right down to the wire. I was certainly proud of them, they did a tremendous job for your Firefighters and I do hope that they felt that they were properly entertained on May 1st.

— CT —

Already plans are in the works for the 75th Anniversary, and if you happen to be around at this time and you thought this was a nice one, just wait; you haven't seen anything yet.

— CT —

Now that the 50th Anniversary is over with, and Federal Taxes paid along with State and the County Property Taxes, one just wonders what there will be to talk about for the next few months, but you can always remember there will be something . . . like . . . the new city hall . . . the new tax rate . . . increased water rates . . . sewers in the canyon . . . I doubt very seriously that any of us will run out of anything to talk about . . . not in Sierra Madre???

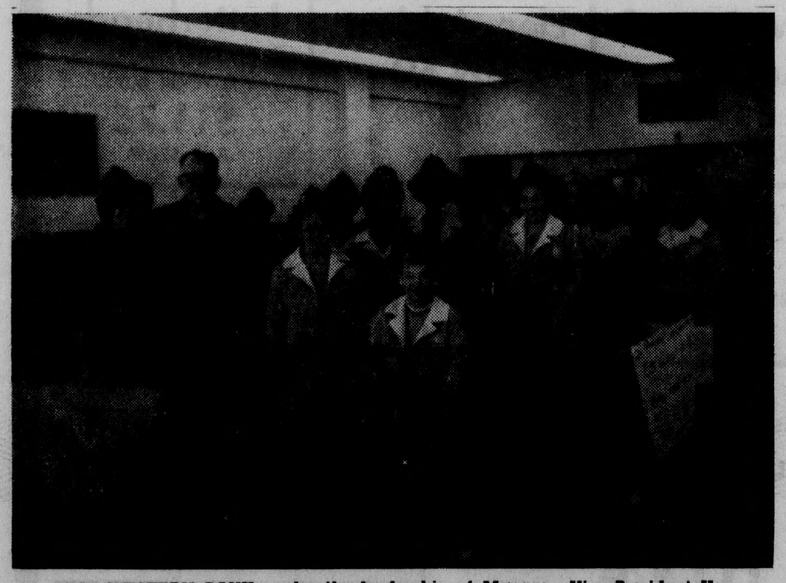

— CT —

One thing for sure, and it's not funny but . . . inflation has inspired a raft of new jokes. Just like for instance the other night I went to Roess Market to do the family marketing for the evening and as I entered the market the bag boy asked me if I wanted a shopping cart. "No thanks," I answered, "I won't need one tonight, I've only got a twenty on me." And that is the way things go . . . Many times the wife comes home to tell me that groceries and meats cost $48 to $60 for the week . . . Gee, I remember back in the year 1935 when a man and wife went to the grocery store with a $5 dollar bill and had to make two trips to the car to get it all out . . . Course I remember also that my salary for a 60-hour week was $27.50 also.

— CT —

Of course, I did this once long, long ago, but it still gives one a little satisfaction when the conversation is all

Special Garden Club Dinner Meet Set For May 10

A treat is in store for all members and interested friends of the Sierra Madre Garden Club during the last regular monthly dinner meeting scheduled for 6:30 p.m. on Monday, May 10, at the Sierra Madre Woman's Clubhouse, 270 West Sierra Madre Blvd.

Mr. William Lockwood, a member of the Sierra Madre Garden Club and one of the well known "Cactus Men" in the country, will present colorful slides and information related to the use of succulent plants at home and in the patio. Current interest in the ecology of plant life brings to attention these exotic plants which are designed to conserve moisture. There is much to be learned from nature's designs which have some built in measures for conservation.

Mr. Lockwood is spending considerable time this year in searching for unusual plant specimens in Baja California. He is past president of the Los Angeles Cactus and Succulent Society and presently vice president of the Cactus and Succulent Society of America. This is the parent group for all such societies in this country. Currently, he is chairman of "Cactus Expo '71" scheduled for July 3, 4 and 5, a national cactus and succulent show at the Los Angeles County Arboretum.

Dinner reservations for the May 10 dinner in Sierra Madre may be secured by calling Madeline Smith 355-1583 or Betty Hoffman. 355-9940 prior to Friday, May 7.

However, those unable to attend the dinner are invited to the program later in the evening. All interested in the subject are welcome.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. David Roess Marries Arcadia Girl In Evening Rites

MR. and MRS. FREDERICK D. ROESS
. . . . Married in Bethany Church

Two hundred guests witnessed the marriage of Patricia Barthelemy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barthelemy of Arcadia, to Mr. Frederick D. Roess, son of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Roess of 125 Lowell, which took place at 8 p.m. at the Bethany Church on the evening of April 2. The Rev. Robert M. Vanderzaag officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a tunning gown of ivory peau de soie. French re-embroidered Alencon lace adorned the bodice and long, full sleeves. Tiny seed pearls encrusted the high neck and cuffs, with more pearls scattered over the bodice and sleeves of the empire style gown. Her lovely silk illusion veil was secured by a small, pearl encrusted coronet. A variety of orchids made up the bridal bouquet.

Bridal attendants wore Empire styled gowns of light blue, with the bodice of brocade and the skirt of crepe. Velvet bows served as their headpieces and they carried bouquets of spring flowers.

Serving as maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Constance C. Barthelemy of Arcadia. Other bridesmaids were: Miss Joy Roess, of Sierra Madre, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Penny Droegemueller of Temple City, and Miss Nancy Ely, also of Temple City. The bridegroom's niece, Sherylanne Sharpless, was the flower girl. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Sharpless of Big Pine.

Mr. Rafi Gishri attended the bridegroom as best man while serving as ushers were Mr. Robert Ingram of Sierra Madre; Mr. Jon Schrotgberger of Oregon; and brother of the bride, Mr. Michael Barthelemy of Arcadia.

Another brother of the bride, James A. Barthelmy serevd as junior usher.

The mother of the bride chose a coral crepe dress for her daughter's wedding and the bridegroom's mother wore a crepe dress of yellow. Both mothers had corsages of cymbidium orchids.

Lovely, colorful spring flowers, with light blue predominating, were used in the decorations for the reception held at the church following the ceremony.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jon Schrotgberger, who came all the way from Oregon to attend the wedding and reception.

The bride is a graduate of Arcadia High School, where she was a member of the Tom Tom Drill Team. She is also a graduate of Pasadena City College where she majored in Dental Assisting. She is presented employed as a dental assistant.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Pasadena High and Pasadena City College. He is presently a student at USC where he is majoring in accounting.

After a honeymoon trip to Carmel, the newlyweds are now at home in Pasadena.

Ramona To Play May 8th & 9th

Due to the short time available to publicize the additional performances of the famed Ramona Play in Hemet, plenty of good seats are available for both the Saturday and Sunday performances on May 8 and May 9.

The additional performances were made necessary by the rain-out of the first Sunday performance on April 18th.

It is suggested that persons desiring to come to the show, which begins at 2:30 p.m., drive out to Hemet early on either of those dates — May 8 or 9 — to purchase the best seats. Prices are $4, $3 and $2.50.

Bethany Youth To Attend Hume Lake

The Christian Education Board of Bethany Church in Sierra Madre recently announced plans for a unified camp program for this summer. Hume Lake Camp, 65 miles east of Fresno, has been said by many to be the finest camp program in the country. All children and youth from grades 3 through 12 will travel by bus July 11 from six days at this famous camp. Three different camp sites are located in this part of Sequoia National Park.

Wagon Train is for children 8-11 years of age, Meadow Ranch is for Junior High Youth, and Ponderosa is the High School Camp. The total cost of the camp is $39.50 which includes transportation by bus. Registration deadline is June 14.

This Sunday, May 8, will be camp promotion day. There will be films of camp shown in each of the departments during the Sunday school hour beginning at 9:30 a.m. Community children and young people are welcome to join Bethany students for this great camping experience.

Tilley Entertains Auxiliary Unit

Mrs. Jack J. Tilley, past president of the Sierra Madre Community Hospital Auxiliary and former Sierra Madre resident, entertained some 50 auxiliary friends recently on a "Day of Fun" outing. Her special guests included Mrs. Jack Eisenhart, Sierra Madre Community Hospital administrator; Mr. Lester K. Layton and Mr. Carl Hobson, hospital foundation trustees, and their wives.

Mrs. Tilley arranged for a charter bus to drive her guests from Sierra Madre to her home on Lido Isle, Newport Beach, where everyone was conducted on a tour of th luxurious bay front home. The highlight of the day occurred with the group boarding the Newport Harbor boat, the Queen, which was moored at the Tilley dock. During a leisurely and scenic cruise around the bay, box lunches were served. The weatherman cooperated with a bright and sunny day, no one was seasick, and all the guests agreed it was a unique way to entertain.

Mrs. Arthur Maricq of Sierra Madre, executive hostess of the auxiliary, was in charge of local arrangements ad also presented to Mrs. Tilley a beautiful cymbidium plant with over 60 blossoms as a thank you from all her auxiliary friends.

HIPPIE — There are several more that could be added to your list. They would really scare the stingers right off the bees. My how their attitudes have changed since the man with the "velvet glove and long stick" left town. But this will be straightened out very soon, about June 1 — BEE HIVE

SAVE BIG! — Clean rugs and upholstery with Blue Lustre. Rent an electric shampooer for $1 at Arnold's Hardware and Gift Store, 297 West Sierra Madre Boulevard. Just call BOB at 355-3365 and ask about his advice on cleanings rugs and upholstery; he has all the answers for you — OLIVER

STELLA — I doubt what you say. I fail to see where LL is leaving town. I have made a new approach, but have not heard back from it. But hope to after the first of May. Hold on tight, it could be that all it not lost for me at the present time. I HAVE BEEN GOOD to everybody you know — CAROL

JOEL — I am going to hold you to what you said, and expect you to come through with all that is necessary. Remember, you were just as much a part of the situation as I was. I need help — TATUM

CLAUDE — I never thought that you would fail me, or I would not be in the situation that I am now in if I thought so. I am willing to go the last mile with you, but no rough roads please — CHRISTINE

GLORIA — Well I knew that the better things in life were sure to come during the month of May. I have been waiting and waiting for that Dress Merchandising Special ever since last February. It is sure wonderful that I have several. Now I will get them all cleaned for the summer months. The price, as compared with others is out of this world, $1.19 with first class craftsmanship is something that we girls dream about. Also those shirts laundered in boxes or on hangers just cannot be surpassed by anyone at the price of 4 for $1.09. It is a life saver for sure — SUSIE Q

TIMID — Heavens to Betsy, you sure did show me a trick and then some; I did not know that you had the knowledge, but as my Father always told me: "Still Water Runs Deep" and just now I fully realized what he was talking about. I have found a jewel among the thorns. Thanks a million — BRAZEN

TREBLE — If you thought that truth hurt a little, then wait until you hear the full story, but then I am sure that you will forgive in time, after all it did happen many years before I knew you and I fail to see where you can hold that sort of thing against me forever — CLEF

PERSONALS

SCUDDLED ONE — I am happy that we are in accord, what I said is the full opinion of yours truly and I will back them up with all that I have. Just trust me and stay aboard. More to come — TAME ONE

TROUBLESHOOTER —Nothing there to worry about. Everyone is working toward one end you know and they are dead serious in their endeavor. I am on to something new however that I am sure that you must have missed. Will give you a little more information the last of next week. Just wait — — PLACID

HEAVENLY WONDER — I have made arrangements for Saturday, May 8; do hope that this fits in with your schedule. People will be out of town, and you could have to work that day, but you will have to make all the necessary arrangements, which you said that you could do. Let me know — as soon as possible, if not by phone then by this method. I will be anxious to hear — KING OF SPADES

TERRY — Sorry about the conditions, I certainly did not intend that you should be hurt, but those things do happen. I look forward to what you say about the future; do hope you can make it real soon as everything seems to need a little explanation, and you can surely do this — HELLBROWS

DUMB - DUMB — I am telling you now that I definitely will need a great amount of assistance in the near future, and I am expecting you to do all that you can and maybe a little bit more. Just do not under any consideration let me down. It takes two to tango you must remember — TALLEY

CUT-THROAT — Are you trying to make a trade with City Officials. Are you trying to get something for the Canyonites in trade of support for the Bond Issues? It sure seems like it to a great many individuals, but you are wasting your time. Nothing will be said about Sewers until way after June 8. Better give 'em your support now, they will come through later; I bet you this with all that is within me. But now is the time to buy and consolidate, it will be worth it — ACE-IN-THE-HOLE

DARLING — Yes, I was certainly disappointed and did feel rejected, but now things seem to be in much better condition, and do hope that we can get together at an early date, will listen — HAB

CASTLE — I thought that I had fully explained my position. I am definitely not forsaking you or have never given it any thought whatsoever, but it must be this way or forever end — PEADMONT

Fact: Many times the City saves money for two or three years and then spends it on a big capital project as street construction or water line installation. That is not deficit spending!

Allegation: The City made a $300,000 short term loan.

Fact: Because of tax exemption laws, the City can and did borrow $300,000 at 4.05 per cent which it promptly invested at 5 per cent — just good business.

Rumor: Without substantial increased operating revenue, Sierra Madre will cease to exist as we now know it.

Fact: Current operating revenues will be more sufficient if they do not also have to build capital projects; hence, the June 8th bond election for water system, police, fire and city office facility and park and library improvements.

Rumor: The bond issue will mean a $100-$200 tax override.

Fact: The typical $32,000 home would pay $24.60 a year (or $2.05 per month) for City Hall, parks and library — not $100 - $200. Water improvements would be paid from water sales — not property taxes (an $8 water bill would increase to $10.40).

You may hear other rumors . . . .

But you deserve to know the facts which will protect your property values.

A group of concerned citizens has investigated the issues first hand. We want a chance to discuss the facts about the June 8, bond issue with you and your neighbors.

Call Ken Kneale, chairman, Citizens Bond Issue Steering Committee.

180 Boy Scouts Attend 1971 Camporee Here

Falcon Patrol of 376; second place patrol went to the Desert Fox of Troop 360; and third place patrol distinction went to the Beaver Patrol of Troop 374.

In addition to the patrol awards, awards were given for patrol camping. In this event there are two general classifications — trailwise, which involves "backpacking," and base camp, which is a permanent camp of operations. Awards for first place Trailwise went to Falcon Patrol, Troop 376 with second place award award going to Grizzly Bears Patrol, Troop 376. First place award for Base Camp went to Scrubs Patrol, Troop 382 and second place award was earned by the Desert Fox Patrol of Troop 360.

The awards were presented by Sierra Madre's Mayor Ralph Rule in a ceremony at the Monastery Field on Sunday afternoon at one o'clock.

During the Camporee, the Scouters cooked the meals for the adults, assisting them in the annual event. The boys also organized and presented the outstanding 'Campfire', including Indian dances by costumed dancers, on Saturday night.

Not to be left out, were the Cub Scouts of the Four Canyons District. While they did not participate in the entire Camporee, (camping out for the three days), they did add to the success of the event. Saturday afternoon was their day. "Webelos Day," and there were over 50 Cub Scouts present. Awards were given to the three top Cub Packs competig and to the three top Cub Scouts in the competitions.

Religious services were not missed by the boys while attending the Camporee. Jewish services were conducted on Saturday and on Sunday, Catholic services at the Monastery Chapel were open to the Scouts. The Revrend Anderson of the Sierra Madre Congregational Church conducted Protestant services.

It was a very full weekend for the Scouts and in connection with the Camporee, four of them conducted the flag raising ceremony at the opening of Little League at Heasley Field, Saturday morning, April 24, at 10 a.m. The Scouts were Marc Turner and Charles Edwards of Troop 360 and Tom Puhlman and Dan Ramos of Troop 381.

The entire event was a success and as last year, the general planning and organization of the Camporee was under the direction of Frank Frankenstein of Troop 313 of Pasadena. He was assisted by adults from all of the units in the Four Canyon District with Assistant District Commissioner Allen Wheeler was responsible for the general supervision of all district camping activities. Also helping were Explorer Scout personnel who performed many of the functions required to carry out a successful Camporee.

4-H Club To Help Ecology

The Santa Anita Rangers 4-H Club is keeping up the Sierra Madre Reclamation Center for the month of May. There will be a 4-Her there almost every day to sort: glass, scrap aluminum, and stack newspapers. Also to keep the area clean and neat.

This is part of their Community Service Project. They do several during the 4-H year. Along with this one they are planting trees in the area of the Sunset Ranger Station under the direction of the rangers on duty.

Please save and bring your glass, scrap aluminum and newspapers to the Sierra Vista Park on Sierra Madre Boulevard, during the month of May.

Letters To the Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

Today in any meaningful political dialogue, the terms Republican and Democrat are most often, and correctly, discarded, for there is little difference in their meanings. Instead, the terms conservative and liberal are widely used. But what are the real meanings of these words; are they used correctly? Actually these terms are generally incorrectly used.

The conservative today is supposed to be for status quo. Yet how many Americans who class themselves in this group actually want to maintain the status quo? Certainly very few would fall into this category. Those who are generally called conservatives are in most cases Constitutionalists; i.e., they want the Constitution adhered to and they oppose any action in opposition to that Constitution. Since the status quo of recent years has been to get away from the Constitution and perpetuate the rules of man rather than the rule of law, "conservatives" are of necessity against the status quo.

At the same time, those who are called liberals are those who seek an ever-xpanding government, which is of course the greatest threat to liberty. In short, today's liberals promote the destruction of liberty, for almost every action they take decreases the individual's personal liberty.

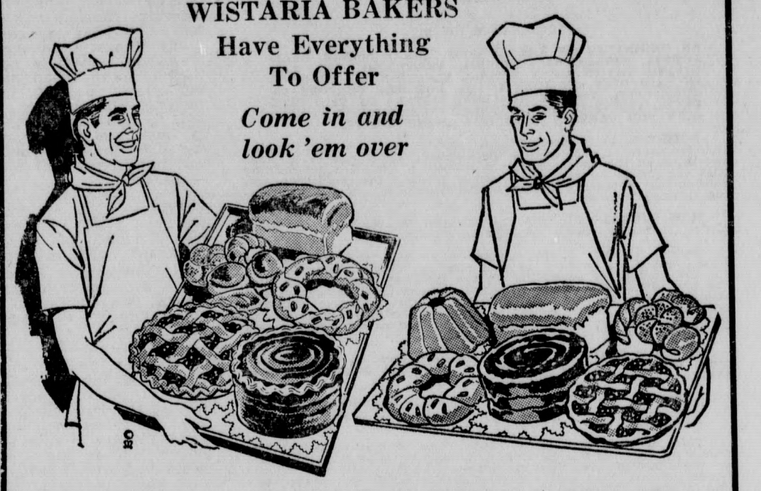

Those who promote big government are not true liberals; they are collectivists. Those who promote strict adherence to the Constitution of the United States are not true conservatives; they are liberals in the truest sense of the word. The only possible justification for calling a collectivist a liberal is that he wants to take liberty with another man's freedom. This is not liberalism; that is tyranny.

Congressman John Schmitz of Orange County, California, is not a conservative; he is a liberal seeking liberty. Senator Jacob Javits of New York is not a liberal; he is a collectivist seeking tyranny.

Let's keep our perspective in defining our terms.

— Richard E. Woodin

Senior Citizens Met April 24

The April 24th meeting of the Senior Citizens Club was opened by vice president Bernice Olson. She asked all to join in prayer, followed by Pledging Allegiance to the Flag. Vivian Singleton played the piano for the singing of "God Bless America" and "The More We Get Together."

The acting president welcomed the 34 members present and thanked those who brought the lovely flowers. A special thanks was given to Flora Anderson for decorating the birthday table so attractively and for baking three delicious cakes.

While the tables were being cleared the group had the usual singing, with Henrieta Symonds playing the piano.

Pansy Hearn then conducted the door prize awarding, first prize went to Dorothy Crouchley; second to Bernice Olson and third to Nellie Holloway. Ann Platell read two humorous poems. Ann's poems are well chosen and are always enjoyed by all.

A motion was made and carried to purchase a new guest book. Henrietta Symond then conducted a guessing game, "Lucky Pairs'" with the north side winning. There being no further business the group adjourned for cards and games.

All New, 1971 'Disney On Parade Set For June 9-27

The all-new and different 1971 edition of "Disney On Parade," presenting 12 acts bringing great Disney classics and characters to life, will appear at the Los Angeles Sports Arena in a 2½-hour live stage musical June 9-27, for 29 performances.

Last year's version of the show set a Los Angeles Sports Arena record with 211,859 attending the 2½-week run with 12 of the 29 shows complete sellouts.

This year's edition will present such familiar stories as "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "Pinnocchio," "Fantasia," plus Goofy and Herbie the Love Bug and many more. Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck are among favorite Disney characters who are spotlighted in special live acts all their own.

A host of other Disney costumed characters will flood the stage and move right into the audience, dancing and moving to familiar Disney music.

The show is live in content with a cast of nearly 100, completely different from anything presented at Disneyland.

Tickets are priced $3, $4 and $5, with children 12 and under $1 off for all performances. Performances are scheduled Tuesday through Saturday at 8 p.m. with matinees Saturday, 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., and Sunday at 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. Three additional matinees have been scheduled following the end of the school year at 2:30 p.m. for Tuesday-Friday, June 23-25.

Tickets for "Disney On Parade" will be available May 17 at the Sports Arena box ofice from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., or all Ticketron outlets, Southern California Music Co., all Mutual Agencies, all Wallichs Music City Stores, Buffum's and Liberty Ticket Agencies.

Advance tickets are available by sending a check and self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Sports Arena.

Information for group discounts may be obtained by calling 741-1161. Special performances and prices have been established for Scout and youth groups of 25 or more.

This new version of "Disney On Parade" premiered in December in Texas and has repeatedly set arena attendance records, including Philadelphia and Toronto.

Some 300 specially designed costumes accompany massive, colorful settings ranging from "Pinocchio's Italian Street Carnival" to the "living" haunted trees in "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." A large castle with pulsating colored lights has 10 magic openings and doors through which the entire cast can flood the floor in seconds.

The entire show is built around music which goes all the way from favorite Disney songs to the Country-Western beat in "Barnyard Bash" with dancing chickens, eggs, rooster, fox and scarecrow, to "Fantasia's" famous "Nutcracker Suite."

Each performance ends with the "Small World" finale where the audience is invited to join the cast in costumes from 21 different countries, along with a host of Disney characters.

The 50th Anniversary Celebration honoring the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department was a tremendous affair — especially Saturday, May 1st with the parade and gathering of 'old timers', and the old timers dinner Saturday evening. Many memories were relived bringing nostalgia to those who remember and admiration and awe from the youngsters, and those who are new to Sierra Madre. The celebration also inspired an increase of most welcome correspondence from former Sierra Madreans, many of whom were unable to attend the festivities.

One of those letters came from Mrs. J. Francis (Lillian Young Roess) Quinn of Seal Beach. Mrs. Quinn misses Sierra Madre very much and would never be without her copy of the Sierra Madre News. She is what is considered as being an "old timer," having first arrived in Sierra Madre in 1915 when she resided at 26 Adams St. with her family —which included two small sons, Jack and Carl, Jr. It's only been within the last few years that Mrs. Quinn and her husband have made Seal Beach their home.

Much to our former Sierra Madrean's distress, she was not able to attend any of the 50th anniversary celebration, but send her greetings to the old-timers and her best wishes to the Fire Department.

COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

New admissions to the hospital who are still patients there at the latest report are Rae Albright, admitted on Tuesday, April 27; Nora Griffith, admitted on Friday, April 23; Gale Gant and Rose Stewart, both admitted on Thursday, April 29, and Charles McWade, admitted on Monday, April 26.

Gertrude Borreson, who was admitted on Monday, April 12 was discharged on Thursday, April 29.

The stork delivered only boys this last week. Mr. and Mrs. Darell Farnbach of Duarte were delivered a 7 pound 2 ounce boy on Wednesday, April 21. Going home day was Tuesday, April 27, where mother and babe were welcomed home by one other little one.

Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold of Pasadena were delivered a 4 pound 3½ ounce baby boy on Monday, April 26. Mother was discharged on Wednesday, April 28. The little one, pre-mature, is still at the hospital at latest report, waiting to put on a little more weight.

Donald H. Denison of 315 East Highland Ave., has been elected a vice president of United California Bank, it was announced by Norman Barker Jr., UCB president.

Walter Steiner Called To Rest

Walter Ernest Steiner Sr. of 540 West Sierra Madre Boulevard, passed away suddenly at his home on April 28. He was 64 years of age and was employed as a lighting engineer by the B. & K. Electric Company. He had lived in Sierra Madre for ten years and was originally from Dayton, Ohio.

Left to mourn Mr. Steiner's passing are: his wife, Marjorie C. Steiner of the Sierra Madre address; his son, Walter Ernest Steiner, Jr. of Los Angeles; and his mother, Mrs. Anna Steiner of Dayton, Ohio.

Funeral services were scheduled to be held in Dayton, Ohio, with interment at Woodland Cemetery, also in Dayton, Ohio.

For the best deal on new car money:

Consider the source.

Deal direct with the money factory and save. If you want some of your hard-earned cash to help pay a financial middleman, that's your business. But if you want to save some money on a new car loan, that's our business. Let's face it, the lower interest on direct bank loans cuts the cost of new (or used) car buying and can save you up to $200 over the life of the loan.

Save an additional $48 to $72. Our auto loans come equipped with a free, personal First Banchecking Account, too. Over the two or three year period of your loan this saving could buy a push-button radio, enough gas for a long vacation or something special for your wife. It might even make your last car payment.

You might be better off leasing. Before you buy a car, get the whole story by checking the facts on our First Bancar Lease. It won't cost you a cent to get unbiased, financial information. You'll find that the cost of a lease will be less at the money factory; you'll also save because we don't pay sales commissions.

Come to First Western Bank, first. As a $950,000,000 bank with over 90 offices throughout the state, we want you to get the best deal whether you buy or lease. So, when you consider the source, also consider the alternative. The money you save will be your own.

Rev. M. Stevens Announces Topic

"Happiness is Still Homemade" is the sermon title chosen by Rev. Margaret M. Stevens, minister of The Santa Anita Church, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, on Sunday, May 9, 1971 at 10:30 a.m.

Junior Church young people attend the opening 15 minutes of the worship service with their parents and then go to their own graded classes. The nursery-playroom in Room 4 of The Ethel Barnhart School opens at 10:00 a.m. to receive infants and children under five years.

Tuesday morning at 10:00 a.m. the Bible study class will continue their studies. The regularly scheduled Adult Class which meets Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. will have "Mind Stretchers" as their subject. All are welcome to attend.

The Tuesday bridge group meets at 11:00 a.m. in the Fireside Room for bridge and potluck lunch.

Wednesday, May 12 at 2:00 p.m. the Mothers Group of the Ethel Barnhart School will have Dr. William R. Parker as their guest speaker. His talk is titled "Problem Solving in the Home." The meeting will be held in Inspiration Chapel.

Wednesday evening at 7:00 p.m. the Men's Forum will have supper prepared by the women in the church. A stimulating program is planned — good food and fellowship. Come join in the evening's activity.

The Women's Class in Successful Living, led by the minister Thursday mornings at 11:00 a.m. is open to all women in the community. You are cordially invited to attend the class. Following the class the women will have sandwich lunch and work on boutique items. Barnhart School open house will be held from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. Thursday, May 13. This is a wonderful opportunity for members and friends to see this excellent school "inaction." You are cordially invited.

Saturday night, May 15, the Los Amigos group will host "Spring Fling." There will be dancing to a "live" band, cards for the card players, door prizes, refreshments — fun for all. Donation is $1.50 each. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ford and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Swanson are co-chairmen for this exciting evening.

May Fellowship For Church Ladies

All church women of Pasadena, Sierra Madre, and the neighboring areas are invited and urged to attend the May Fellowship Day service of Church Women United to be held this year at the First Methodist Church on Colorado and Oakland in Pasadena on Friday, May 7 at ten o'clock. Church Women United brings together all Christian women of whatever confession, nationality, or race to worship and work together, and to renew fellowship.

Lesson Sermon Sunday, May 9

Permanent peace can be achieved, according to the Bible Lesson-Sermon to be read Sunday at Christian Science church services.

"God fashions all things, after His own likeness. Life is reflected in existence, Truth in truthfulness, God in goodness, which impart their own peace and permanence." This citation from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is from the Lesson-Sermon on "Adam and Fallen Man."

These words of the Apostle Paul will also be read: "Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another."

Everyone is invited to attend First Church of Christ, Scientist, 186 W. Highland Ave. The service begins at 11 a.m.

Rev. Anderson Announces Topic For Sun., May 9

Pastor of the Sierra Madre Congregational Church, Rev. Richard J. Anderson, will have for his sermon topic on Mother's Day, May 9, at 10:30 a.m. "The Alter of Sacrifice."

In commenting on his sermon topic, Rev. Anderson says: "It is hard to think of anything more closely united than the unity between an unborn child and its mother, and yet Godly motherhood begins with the recognition that the life of a baby is only a trust from God. Godly motherhood demands the recognition that this life was not created by the mother or the father, but has been given to the parents by God, and that God is the true Father and the rightful owner of this wonderful gift.

"When a mother sees herself not as the owner, but as the trustee of this new life, it completely revolutionizes her attitude toward herself, her role as a mother and her relationship to her children. When Job lost his children in that terrible catastrophe, his response to his loss was almost overwhelming and yet his words were these: 'The Lord gave, and the Lord taketh away. Blessed be the name of the Lord.'

"Job recognized the reality of God's fatherhood — that He was the giver of life, the creator of life and that life is only entrusted to us for a period of time. 'The Lord gives and the Lord takes away. Blessed be the name of the Lord.'

And yet dedication of our children to God is not a negation of our responsibility. Children are a trust from the Lord. This means, we must be trustworthy. We are not free to let the world raise our children. We are not free to let TV tutor our children. We do not own them. They are the Lord's."

Concluding, Pastor Anderson says: "On this Mother's Day may each Godly mother rededicate herself and her children to the Lord in recognition of the reality of ownership. 'We give Thee but Thine own, what e're the gift may be. All that we have is Thine alone, a trust, O Lord, from Thee'."

Topic: 'Happiness Is Homemade'

"Happiness is Homemade" will be the pulpit message of the Rev. Armin Hesse in the 10:30 Sunday morning Mother's Day service at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive. The national observance of Mother's Day this year falls on the church calendar date of Song Sunday. The local congregation will also participate in a churchbody-wide offering to support the work of the Lutheran Armed Services Commission among military personnel.

The Sunday school departments will be convened at 9:15 by Superintendent Robert Beckstrom. Mr. Donald Hingst is leading the high school-college age group in a discussion on "The Thirteen Men Who Changed the World." Dr. Richard Kramb will introduce the Sanctuary Adult Bible Class to another phase of "The Christian's Social Concerns."

Scheduled next week: Adult Church - Membership Study Class for Non-Members on Tuesday at 8; Sunday school staff on Wednesday at 7:30, and Board of Elders at 8:30 the Lutheran Women's Missionary League day on Thursday beginning at 9 a.m., Senior Choir on Friday at 8. Ladies of the parish will assist Chaplain Ferber at the Santa Anita Sanitarium on Friday afternoon of next week at 1:30.

A Day With the Volunteers

The "Old-Timers" dinner was a wonderful, unforgetable affair. Everyone seemed to be there and they all were in such good spirits; people just bubbled. All were extremely proud of our Volunteers and the tremendous job they did putting on the entire celebration, including the dinner and the "one - of - a - kind," never-to-be-forgotten parade. John Buchan, his committee and crew really presented guests with a superb dinner. Joseph Grippi was general chairman for the event and came down with a touch of flu a day or so before the parade. (If you saw the parade, he was the one riding in the ambulance!) Reserve George Maurer managed the parade arrangements and Bob Evans was the Finance Chairman, with sub-title of Medallion Chairman. Then there was Lee Graves who handled the tickets, seating arrangements and was also MC for the dinner. Len Hall, who handled the printed printed programs and all it entailed; Jim Tyler, who made a beautiful 50th Anniversary scrapbook with a plywood cover, the front of which had a raised cut-out copy of the Medallion design; Ron Hall, who had charge of the carnival arrangements; and Hugh McMahon, Neil Smith . . . we could go on and on. But each and every one of the Firefighters worked very hard and all overlapped their assigned projects to lend helping hands on other committees. And certainly NOT TO BE FORGOTTEN, are the families and especially the wives of these men. Without their help and support, the affair could not have been the success it was. These gals worked hard and among them were Ann Graves, Opal Grippi, Carol Ludden, Jane Buchan and Shirley Hall. The Signorinos, Joe and Virginia, in addition to everything else, spent much time making the beautiful orchid corsages for each lady attending the banquet. The orchids for the corsages were donated by Harold Spears who also donated small cymbidium orchids for the table decorations.

It was certainly nice to see all those people attending the "Old Timers" Banquet. Frank Lovell, Charles Askew, Dick Hawks, Roy Penn, etc., etc. etc. Also among those present were three very lovely and charming ladies, all widows, Mrs. Earl Topping, Mrs. James Heasley, Sr., and Mrs. Gordon McMillian. Former Sierra Madrean, Ted Valasquez was also among the special guests. He's the artist who designed the Medallion.

The guest book, all those attending signed as they entered St. Rita's Social Hall to attend the banquet, would be fun to read over. We understand approximately 361 attended the banquet and well over 10,000 persons lined the parade route to view that fabulous, surely a first, one-of-a-kind parade of fire equipment.

Honorary Fire Chief Joel Cass' brother, Jim had a birthday last month — his 15th. Hope it was an especially nice birthday. Joel also has another brother, Jeff, who will be 13 later this year. Chief Joel, at 10 years of age, is the youngest of the clan, although he certainly outranks everyone in the family. Wonder if that included Mom — Joanne Cass??

THE FOOD You Eat

by JEANNETTE

EDITOR'S NOTE: When her children were young and full of questions, Jeannette Heasley found herself looking up the why fores of the food her children ate and asked questions about. She would write them down and after explaining them to the satisfaction of her children, filed them away for future questions. Now that her children are grown, she extracted them from the Heasley Archives and is sharing them with you in a weekly column.

There is a proverb that says "toasted cheese has no master." The Welsh rabbit has been considered the national dish of Wales and has been described as the "Welshman's delight" and "Davies' darling."

Welsh rabbit is a simple but tasty dish of toasted bread covered with toasted cheese and smeared with mustard and pepper.

This appetizing dish owes its name and perhaps its existence to human antagonism, a former dislike of the Welsh by the English. There was a time when the English looked down on the Welsh and were very contemptuous of everything that came from Wales.

It was thought that the Welsh were a poor lot in every sense of the word. Their country lacked almost everything, even rabbits, which were numerous elsewhere. The Welsh people could not afford to buy them from England, and were forced to find a substitute, their own kind of synthetic rabbit. This they made from the cheapest ingredients available, bread and cheese. The English called this Welsh delicacy their "rabbit."

There is an old story that one bragging Welshman told how his father entertained 12 guests and employed 12 cooks. The listener remarked, "Ah, I suppose every man had to toast his own cheese!"

Eventually all Welshman came to resent deeply all that was associated with their "rabbit." They claimed that they themselves had never spoken of a rabbit at all. Atually the Welsh "rabbit" was the result of bad enunciation on the part of jealous Englishmen. The melted cheese had nothing to do with the common rabbit, but on the contrary, was a "rare-bit" of delicious food.

Two dishes of culinary enjoyment of man have been attributed to an Australian prima donna, Dame Nellie Melba. Years after her voice has been silent, people still talk of her when they order a special kind of dessert or crunch a certain kind of thin toast.

Melba is still listed among the great sopranos of the world, but her name is spoken most around the dinner table. Peach Melba and Melba toast have immortalized her glorious voice.

Peach Melba as it is now served is far different from the original sweet. It was a blend of beautiful color, attractive shape and delicious taste which combined the flavors of raspberry, peach and vanilla. It was devised by a great culinary artist, George Escoffier, Officer of the Legion of Honour, who has been called the king of cooks.

Escoffier worshiped Dame Melba, who was one of his patrons. During 1892-1893 she was staying at the Savoy Hotel, London when he was its chef. He often went to the theater to listen to her, and enjoyed her performance as Elsa in Lohengrin. That night to him was an unforgettable occasion, which he somehow wished to perpetuate in his own creative way.

You and Your Neighbors

How lucky can you get? Mrs. Ruth Barden and her three children—Richard (16, Anne (15) and Elizabeth (12) are off on another cruise the 16th of May.

This time it will be aboard the Holland-American Line's S. S. Statendam, a real luxury liner. First stop will be Acapulco, then through the Panama Canal and stops at Port-au-Prince, Haiti; Cristobal, Jamaica, and Cartagena, Colombia, South America. From there it's Florida and New York. In New York they will stay with former Sierra Madreans Bill and Doris Mecher before flying home.

All in all, our travelers will be gone three, whole wonderful weeks.

It's really a little too late to even say belated happy birthday to Mr. Jim Abernethy and his youngest son John, who both share the same birthday — February 25th. However, we thought the originality of their birthday cake should be mentioned here. Mrs. (Rosemary) Abernethy surprised them both with a large sheet cake done up as a soccer field with some roses decorating it here and there. The fellows were completely surprised and very pleased. As a special gift, John and his brother Mark went to see the Miller "500."

And it's never too late to tell someone about a birthday cake make like a soccer field!

Oh that flu bug . . . it's here again (or maybe that should be, it's still here!) And one of the recent victims finally beginning to feel better — after having given it to the rest of the family — is Miss Louise Farrow.

It's a good thing that Louise is beginning to feel better because her two nephews are coming up for the weekend, to be here for the big 50th Anniversary Celebration of our Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department and the big parade. The two nephews, Jimmy (12) and Bobby (10) Weiler of Long Beach, should really enjoy the weekend. (We're pretty sure that Aunt Lou will also get a big kick out of the celebration!)

Sierra Madre was well represeted at the Saturday evening performance of the Ice Capades in L.A. at the Sports Arena, when seven couples made the freeway trip to the big city to see the extravaganza.

After dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas, the following couples, including the Thomases attended the event: Mr. and Mrs. Red Waite; Mr. and Mrs. John Goodall; Walter Brock and Frances Darling; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Decker; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Walsworth, and Mr. and Mrs. Louie George.

Report has it that the freeway trip, parking problems, etc., was well worth it; the show was beautiful and the "gang" enjoyed it thoroughly.

Did you know—That confetti is the inexpensive paper-substitute for the rice, wheat or nuts originally thrown on the newly-weds in the belief that the fertility of the seeds would be transferred to the pair on which they fell?

Out of the Cobwebs

Sixty Years Ago:

The city trustees filled the vacancy in the office of the City Attorney last week by the appointment of H. F. Bridges of this city, who is well qualified to fill the position. Mr. Bridges was admitted to practice law in 1899, and has been continuously engaged in practice since then, with the exception of three years spent abroad. He has, however, with the exception of these three years, resided in California for over twenty years last past.

Mr. George G. Mason of Tuxedo Park, New York, a multi-millionaire, purchased recently two of Mrs. Elizabeth Borglum's pictures to be taken east. One of them was her "Rain Storm over the Sierra Madres," which took a silver medal at the Seattle Exposition. The other was a sunset. Mr. Mason has a magnificent home in Tuxedo Park filled with works of art, so Mrs. Borglum is much pleased to have her work placed in such surroundings.

Affairs of the Church of Ascension are in flourishing condition, judging by reports submitted to the annual meeting of the parish which was held on Tuesday evening in the church. The annual report of the treasurer of the parish showed that receipts of the parish from all sources last year were nearly $3,000. There is not a dollar of debt on the valuable property of the parish and plans for extension work were discussed at the meeting.

Miss Daisy Vannier has accepted the position of superintendent of the Children's hospital in Los Angeles. Her former position of assistant is being filled by Miss Polley.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Welsher have removed to the Madden cottage on Grandin, near Wildon.

New undertaking parlors have been opened by the firm of Ranaker & Gay, in the Olsen building on Baldwin avenue, just south of Central. A complete undertaking establishment has been installed and the firm will be in position to handle all branches of the work right here in Sierra Madre. The large front room of the building has been fitted up as a parlor and funeral chapel where services can be held if desired. A stock of caskets and fittings will be kept on hand. Civil Defense Sirens To Sound

Civil defense sirens in Los Angeles County will be sounded Friday, April 30 at 10 a.m. in a combined test of the warning systems of the County and City of Los Angeles, Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess announced.

The sirens will be heard in the customary rising and falling, undulating sound pattern for one minute. In the event of an actual enemy attack, said Pitchess, the same undulating sound would be heard for from three to five minutes.

The Food We Eat

Dame Melba was to dine at his hotel the following day. To surprise her, and show his appreciation, he resolved to serve her a completely new dish — a dessert in her honor.

From a block of ice he shaped two wings of a swan and coated them with icing sugar. Between them were peaches resting on a bed of vanilla ice cream. This dish was to recall the most famous scene in Lohengrin, and at first he called the sweet, peches au cygne — "swan-like peaches."

Later, on the occasion of the opening of London's Carlton Hotel, he improved the sweet by adding raspberry sauce. It was then that he renamed the dessert and called it Peach Melba. Today Peach Melba is made with a half of a canned peach, a scoop of vanilla ice cream, and topped with raspberry syrup.

There are two stories as to how Melba Toast got its name. On one of Dame Melba's visits to London, she again stayed at the Savoy Hotel. As she was keeping a strict diet to control her weight she ordered nothing but dry toast.

One day when she asked for her usual dry toast, the head waiter was busy and left its preparation to one of his men. Something went wrong and the toast served was much too thin and dry. When the chef noticed the error it was too late. He rushed to Melba's table to apologized, and expected a very strong complaint. To his surprise she complimented him on the "exquisite toast." Naturally, the chef was overjoyed and then and there called the toast by her name.

He continued to serve the new "invention" as long as Melba was at the Savoy. Other guests began asking for it, and "Melba Toast" became a favorite, low calorie delicacy in fashionable restaurants the world over.

The second, but less exciting story, is that Escoffier created it for a friend, Madam Ritz, who had complained to him that her toast was much too thick. At this same time Melba was a guest at the Savoy and known to favor toast. This gave Escoffier and his friend the idea to name it Melba Toast.

Ice cream is believed to be a Chinese invention, originating as "water ices" some 3,000 years ago. Marco Polo brought it to the West. In America George Washington and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton made it, and Dolley Madison popularized it.

By the early 1900's millions of Americans were eating ice cream in cones, sodas and sundaes. The ice cream soda was introduced at the semicentennial of the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia in 1847. The ice cream cone was originated at the St. Louis Fair in 1904.

The ice cream sundae has an interesting beginning. A legend asserts that it referred to Sunday's left-over ice cream dishes, sold, possibly at a cheaper price, during the following week. However, in reality we owe the first Sundae to an American drugstore owner, but where or just when is still a matter of controversy.

Some say the Sundae was invented in Evanston, Illinois. Others say Norfolk, Virginia. But, no matter where it was first made all accounts agree on the reason for it.

It was purely a matter of circumventing the law. Sunday had to be strictly observed in many and peculiar ways. Puritan tradition made it a solemn and somber occasion. Among other forbidden activities on the Sabbath was the drinking of soda drinks. People were till thirsty and a drugstore proprietor saw a chance to give his customers a refreshing dish on the Lord's Day. He began to sell ice cream with syrup and he named the concoction Sunday.

The authorities contended that it was sacriligious to call this dish "Sunday" so the drugstore owner changed its spelling to "Sundae."

The new establishment will make it possible to secure prompt service as well as making it unnecessary to take bodies out of town for treatment, which will be greatly appreciated by persons securing such services. As soon as arrangements can be made for housing them ambulances and hearses will be kept in Sierra Madre by the firm.

Official announcement of an immediate reduction of fire insurance rates in Sierra Madre amounting to 10 cents on each $100 was made by local agents of the leading insurance companies. The rate is reduced from 80 to 70 cents per hundred on buildings covered with tile or other fire-resisting roofs in policies covering a three-year period, which is the life of a very great majority of the policies issued.

Founder of Mother's Day was a Friend of Sierra Madre Woman — For years a Philadelphia neighbor of Miss Anna Jarvis, founder of Mother's Day, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Dietz of 85 South Baldwin avenue, Sierra Madre, preserves warm memories of the charming personality responsible for beginning an observance in which the whole nation will join next Sunday, May 10. Mrs. Dietz told yesterday of how Mother's Day began nearly 25 years ago with the simple observance of Miss Jarvis of a special day each spring in memory of her mother. So simple and unaffected was the Philadelphia woman's veneration, that she began a custom which was taken up by her neighbors and passed from them all over the country.

With over sixty persons in the community given approximately 330 days of work since last March, when a county award of $1,794 was granted to relieve distress, Sierra Madre's unemployment relief program will end with expenditure of the last of the money tomorrow. With additional money from the city, the county award was used to pave and repair sidewalks, curbs and streets all over the town, beautifying thoroughfares and eliminating parkway fire hazards.

Two boys achieved the highest rank in Scouting by qualifying for Eagle Scout at the Boy Scout Court of Honor for the Mt. Wilson District conducted Monday night at the Sierra Madre School. The boys were John E. Bohart of 615 Edgeview Dr., Sierra Madre, and Foss Morton of 3735 Shadow Grove Ave., Hastings Ranch. Both joined Boy Scout Troop 376 on their birthday anniversaries, coming up from Cub Scouts, and together traveling the path to Eagle Scoutship.

Sierra Madre's Parks and Recreation Commission, at a special meeting Monday night, voted unanimously to recommend to Council that the city acquire 3.2 acres of land in Bailey Canyon for a natural wildlife and recreation center. Paul N. Carter, owner of 17 acres in Bailey Canyon, would sell this tract to the city for $35,000. After two years of its use, under a lease, the city would purchase the property on yearly payments of $3,500 scattered over ten years. Mr. Carter proposes to subdivide the rest of the land.

Are You Operating Your Business Under A Fictitious Name?

If So You Must Re-Register it Now! See News Article Below

New Law in effect:

A prediction that 300,000 firms doing business in California under fictitious trade names will re-file under the new fictitious firm name law was made this week by William G. Sharp, county clerk of Los Angeles County. Sharp is chairman of a committee of county clerks which has been preparing procedures for the new statute.

The new requirement for re-filing of all firm names goes into effect July 1, 1971, but Sharp said the filings will be accepted by the county clerk's offices beginning Monday, and he urged early filing in order to avoid the rush just before the July 1 deadline. The filing fee under the new law will be $10. Filings must be renewed hereafter at five year intervals.

The Los Angeles county clerk also pointed out that the historic publication requirement has been continued under the new law and that publication of the statement once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the neighborhood of the affected business is required whenever there has been any change in the information contained in the certificate previously filed. Publication will not be required in instances where there has been no change in the information carried in the old certificate.

A fictitious name, Sharp pointed out, is one that does not include the surname of the operator or one that implies the existence of other owners; or, if a corporation, if it includes a name other than the name given in the articles of incorporation.

The purpose of the fictitious business name procedure is to protect the consumer in enabling him to find out the person with whom he is really dealing, Sharp said. If he has been defrauded by the "John Doe Television and Time Clock Repair Shop" and the shop is really owned and operated by "Richard Roe" or the "East Ganawanda Land and Farming Corporation," the consumer can find in the fictitious name statement information for bringing suit for damages. The procedure provides a ready source of information concerning identity realities obscured by fictitious business or trade names. Most banks now require evidence that the fictitious filing and publication requirements have been met before they will open an account under a fictitious name.

The office of each county clerk will furnish forms required by the new law or information and forms from this newspaper.

WILL LONG REMEMBER YOUR HELP AND SUPPORT

Letters To the Editor . . .

Dear Mr. Evans:

May I submit the following rebuttal to the column, "Looking Ahead," which appeared in the April 15 issue of the Sierra Madre News:

The exceptionally fine educational series on drugs which has been appearing in the NEWS was marred by the reprint of the column by Dr. George S. Benson, National Education Program.

The State of California has long had a drug problem and has long had laws governing the use of drugs and their sources. Most people have either been asleep or have tended to ignore the problem until it hit them personally. The series has fulfilled a great service in awakening and informing them.

However, I take exception, as an individual and as the president of the Cal Alumni Club of San Gabriel Valley to this particular article as "educational" and to the writer's skillful use of horror tacts and clever blend of omission and inaccuracy in his remarks about the University of California at Berkeley.

As the daughter of a graduate of Cal, a graduate myself, the mother of two recent graduates, and a frequent visitor to the campus over the years, including three visits since the first of the year, I am reasonably familiar with what goes on there and somewhat more knowledgeable about the campus than a man who has been on campus but twice in ten years.

Let me point out a few distortions:

Student beggars: I have encountered some "student" beggars and street people on Telegraph Avenue, who are clearly not students at the University, but who are instead, itinerants who have drifted to the city of Berkeley and who are now drifting away to other centers of their culture because they are not really welcome.

Hippie-like garb: There is no single student style of dress at Cal — despite all attempts to make it appear so — any more than there was when I was a student. Had the man from Arkansas really used his eyes while "sauntering around" the campus, he would have found thousands of typical young Californians in classes, laboratories, and libraries, busy learning. Some are dressed in hippie garb — most are not.

He would also have found that the campus of the "shabby Athens of the West" and a substantial portion of its environs are even more attractive today.

Drugs: While the writer left the clear impression that students are heavy drug users, let's look at the police records. UC Police last year arrested 156 persons on narcotics law violations — 2 were UC students. From my own observations many students attend church or religious services. Just last April 17, in a conversation with a young alumna staff member of the Alumni Association who is closely associated with students, I learned that more and more students are turning to ecumenical means of searching for truth. It's up to adults to begin re-living the truths young people have found missing and have mistakenly searched for through drugs.

Turmoil at Cal: The column ignores the peaceful campus of the last ten months or the ten months of quiet in 1970 before Cambodia, or that despite many radical demands to do so, the University has never been shut down, so that each year during the past seven, 8,000 young people have received their degrees at Cal.

"Once a great institution": In the American Council on Education report released earlier this year, Cal was rated as America's top University, strengthening its position since the previous report in 1966. It is still great because the faculty and students continue seriously and successfully to pursue their educational work.

Contrary to the column's report, there are no army surplus stores on Telegraph Avenue, only six of over 100 shops have barricades, and the few stores which have moved away did so because of heavily increased rents. There is the deterioration of age, but it is being cleaned up.

UC Berkeley has had its problems, but it is working them out, in part by enforcing both laws and rules on campus. Over 100 students have been tossed out for misbehavior and another 200 have been placed on probation, with only a 2 per cent repeat rate. At the same time it is doing what the State expects of it — giving young Californians what is recognized as one of the best educations available anywhere.

For further refutation of half-truths and distortions, I have to look no farther than my own two daughters, who were the kind of students whom Dr. Benson failed to see. Or my son-in-law, who was in the Cal Marching Band, which was the official representative of the United States and the State of California at Expo '70 in Osaka. I can't quite see Governor Reagan designaeing "student beggars," drug addicts, or Commies to represent California. I can look a little farther to the many fine Cal students from Sierra Madre, PHS, the San Gabriel Valley, and the rest of the state whom I have known to know that Dr. Benson has done the students and Cal a grave injustice and only clouds the drug problem.

Cal IS and will remain a great institution. Cal always has been and will remain an exciting and intellectually stimulating place. Cal has and will continue to produce leaders who make California the "Golden State." Cal is not easy to understand, but those who understand and appreciate it, love it unstintingly.

—Elena Brown

over . . . It pays to check up now and then.

— CT —

One morning a black man sauntered into the office of a white friend. "Good mowin', Mr. Withrow. Kin I use yo' phone a minute?" he asked. "Certainly, Sam, go ahead," he replied.

— CT —

Sam called his number and after a few minutes' wait said, "Is this Mrs. Whitside? Well, I hears where you-all wanted a good culled man. Is you still wantin' one? Then the man youse got is puffectly satisfactory and you dosn't contemplate makin' no change soon? Al right, ma'am, good bye."

— CT —

Mr. Withrow called to Sam as he left the phone, "Now, that's too bad, Sam, that the place is filled." "Oh dat's all right, Mr. Withrow, Ise de black man what's got de job. But's I'se jest a wantin' to chek up."

— CT —

Every once in a while I would like to call some of the people that I work for and see if they still want me around . . . On the other hand maybe it would be better if I didn't. It just could be that I would find out a great many things that I just wouldn't want to know at my age.

— CT —

This next week we should know all about who is going to be our Chief of Police for the next few years . . . I say a few years, for very few of them stay here much longer than that, just a little schooling, a little learnin' and a little experience and away they go to a much higher paid job . . . But after all wouldn't you and I do the same thing if we had the chance, I think we would and in a big hurry.

— CT —

The next big thing on the agenda for the citizens of Sierra Madre is the Annual Search and Rescue Days that is fast coming up. Their week by Resolution of the City Council will be Memorial Day weekend. As we hear it, and we will hear much, more more about this, they are planning the "Trail Races" this year and this should be a great attraction for the citizens of the area as well as a great many throughout the state. We understand that it is AAU sanctioned and will have some good runners aboard for the race.

— CT —

Of course the main purpose of the week and days to follow is the "Fund Drive" that must be held to keep the team in operation. They are all volunteers too, and the only money that they have is the money that you and I donate to them. When this runs out, then it is either not go on the call or use their own finances until they run out. The call will soon come, so please remember the good work that they are doing, and you do good work for them, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Sensing . . . .

ties made the necessary judgments regarding pornography and devised rules to control the traffic. The U. S. Supreme Court, in a series of decisions, gave the pornographers — the smut-peddlers — a green light. The need now is to build a new American consensus on the subject of printed and filmed filth, emphasizing the importance of strengthening the quality of our national life. This new consensus should produce corrective decisions by the courts. All thoughtful, decent Americans should be able to agree on legislative action to prevent the distribution of material that debases human relationships.

Costumes, Songs Of Yesteryear

On May 7, mothers and daughters of Bethany Church will gather in old fashioned dress for an evening of "Golden Reflections," featuring costumes and songs of yesteryear.

Following delicious food and exciting entertainment, they will be strengthened and blessed by the speaker, Mrs. Barbara Huckins. She has studied voice for 21 years, and has had two radio broadcasts — one in Sacramento (KEBR) and has been the woman commentator for Family Radio, Inc., whose home base is in San Francisco, but whose sister stations are in Sacramento, San Diego, Huston, Texas; Newark, New Jersey, and Chicago, Illinois.

"Please join us for a 'Good old-fashioned time,' May 7, 6:45 p.m. at Bethany Church of Sierra Madre, located at 93 North Baldwin," is the invitation of the committee. For ticket reservation please call 794-5039.

Did you know — That the ring, now an essential for the wedding ceremony is over a thousand years old, It was adopted by the Christian Church in the 9th century, from the pagan world.

Beautiful Arrangements Made To Your Order

Take your problems to CHURCH this week -- millions leave them there!

THAT IMPRESSIONABLE AGE

You have to be so careful what you say to children when they're at that impressionable age.

Our neighbor has a little daughter. And, being something of a skeptic, he's been careful not to let her be exposed to religious teaching, at least not in any direct way.

But the other night she asked, "Who is God?" And, since he wants to see her grow up with the highest ideals, he hesitated a moment before he answered her question.

Then he said, "God made the world." (And he wondered why he hadn't said "God is nobody—there isn't any god.")

Her wondering eyes and pursed lips tugged at his heart. "Gosh, Daddy," she mused, "He's somebody to know!"

Whether you're a child or an adult, that pretty well sums it up. Either God is nobody—or He Is Somebody To Know!

And the church bells ring every Sunday.

Editorially Speaking

By Howard Jarvis
State Chairman, United Organizations of Taxpayers

The People Must Know

The California legislature is considering legalizing off track horse race betting to increase state taxes by $50 million a year, but without reducing any other taxes. The new betting tax would be on top of the $6 billion the state already takes from the people every 12 months.

This $50 million is less than one per cent of the 6000 million already being collected every year now. So for this one per cent increase we would permit the creation of a state sponsored racket that could destroy countless families, force thousands of women and children onto public charity, and which overall could well cost the non-betting taxpayers more than the betting scheme would produce to support broken homes, misery and financial ruin.

Off track betting is to be called gambling, but when 99 per cent of the bettors are dead certain to wind up losers it is not even gambling, but instead a money swindle as destructive to the addicts as drug addiction, and in which the state becomes a pusher and the rakeoff man. The odds are that the racket would soon be dominated by the crime syndicate.

The phony excuse for this legislation is that because everybody does it we might just as well tax it.

In the first place everybody does not do it, nor does everybody engage in prostitution or go to Las Vegas to be clipped.

Because human morality cannot be controlled by law is no reason that we should use governmental power and authority to promote a demeaning racket on the flimsy excuse that we can then tax it.

There are those with twisted minds who believe that the only legitimate reason for Americans to exist is to pay taxes. That extortionate tax imposition ranks above the liberty of Americans. That involuntary slavery or forced servitude is the highest purpose of government. That government has the right to be the master of its people. That there is nothing wrong in destroying people by tax extortion.

If they legalize off track betting I wonder how long it will be before they install slot machines in the school cafeterias? Next we could insist that the Racing Form would be required reading, grades 1 through 5. That ought to do it.

Split the State?

A new twist has been given the "split California in two" argument by Senator Randolph Collier, dean of the upper house.

Collier's intriguing proposal — or interesting spoof — is to split the state into West California and East California, when all these years other split advocates have suggested states of Southern and Northern California.

Over the years the degree of enthusiasm for a State of Northern California and a State of Southern California has run up and down like a public opinion poll in search of an issue.

The apparent thesis behind Collier's West and East California is that the West state, to include the 13 coastal counties from Marin in the North to San Diego in the South, would be an urban state. The 45 counties not included in West California, but to become East California, would be a more rural, agricultural and recreational area. Thusly, perhaps the thinking goes, the urbanologists and the environmentalists can each have the best of two worlds.

West California, to a large extent, could wrestle with the problems of the metropolitan cities while East California wouldn't have to get nearly so mixed up in rapid transit, regional government, water pollution, smog and all that stuff.

It's beautiful —

One tiny problem might be that a heck of a lot of West Californians would want to migrate to the idyllic East state as fast the old jalopy and family fortune permitted.

For the moment, however, the major obstacles facing Senator Collier in seeking approval of East and West California are the tortuous legislative process a measure of this magnitude must face, the answers to the questions of how to split the existing state debt equitably between the proposed new states, the sactity of contracts entered into by the existing state of Califoria and how they would have to be reconciled between the new states, and the other old issues raised whenever a division of the state has been broached. They are all arguments with which Senator Collier is familiar.

In the event Senator Collier meets with legislative success, there of course is still an enormously complicated procedure which must be followed before the two states come into existence.

All the arguments aside, Senator Collier is due kudos. His proposal is fresh, it is ingenious, it focuses strong attention on many of the critical issues confronting us all, if only because it suggests radical surgery of a new type as a solution.

Could it be that this is what the twinkle eyed veteran of a thousand legislative skirmishes has in mind, or is he just saying that the people who are closest to the problems they have created should be more responsible for resolution of them?

Six Guidelines

We are indebted, in a quite roundabout way, to a midwest colleague for a set of guidelines for success quite worth pondering. He is M. Stanton Evans, editor of the Indianapolis News. His words of wisdom come to us through human relations columnist Charles B. Roth, as published in Pacific Gas and Electric Company's employe publication, PG&E Life.

Credits all taken care of, here is the essence of Evans' philosophy:

1. Do something you enjoy; get pleasure out of your daily contacts, because everyone has a fascinating life if only you learn it.

2. Do not expect or ask for something for nothing. You won't get it, and if something isn't achieved without effort it isn't worth having.

3. Give more than you get. Don't be afraid of extra effort.

4. Never be satisfied. Set high goals and when you reach them, set higher ones.

5. Don't feel sorry for yourself. Learn from bad breaks, don't brood over them.

6. Learn your abilities and your limitations. Shape your life by the famous serenity prayer:

"God grant me the serenity to accept those things which cannot be changed; the strength to change those which can; and the wisdom to know the difference."

SENSING THE NEWS

AROUND THE U. S. CAPITOL

The case for censorship of the pornography now sweeping across America in a filthy tide has been ably stated by Irving Kristol, editor of The Public Interest journal and professor of urban values at New York University.

In a recent essay published in the Chicago Tribune, Prof. Kristol asserts — and right so — that "if you care for the quality of life in our American democracy, then you have to be for censorship."

This is a point of view currently unfashionable in liberal circles, and Prof. Kristol points out that in the United States censorship "has to all intents and purposes ceased to exist." The federal courts have lowered virtually all the legal barriers to the distribution and showing of pornographic material.

Civil libertarians of the past, he says, wanted freedom for serious literary works that were not wholly in keeping with public standards. "They have got that, of course," he notes. "But they have also got a world in which homosexual rape takes place on the stage, in which the public flocks to witness varieties of professional fornication, in which Times Square in New York City has become little more than a hideous market for the sale and distribution of printed filth that panders to all known perversions."

It is this condition that makes clear the need for censorship in some form. "We are, after all," as Prof. Kristol notes, not dealing with one passing incident—one book, or one play, or one movie. We are dealing with a general tendency that is suffusing our entire culture."

In city after city, one finds stores that sell pornographic books, magazines, films and so-called "novelties" that deprive people of their specific human qualities, that have the effect of degrading human beings. This enormous traffic in filth is a gold mine for the hoodlum elements that produce and distribute the material.

A nation has to be concerned about the quality of its citizenry. It has to legislate against elements and developments which brutalize and debase its people. In a self-governing society, it is necessary to care about the character of the people and guard against the spread of degeneracy.

Society has the right to draw a line on human behavior and on self-expression. It has a right to forbid physical torture on a stage, Prof. Kristol comments, "even if the victim were a willing masochist." By definition, society involves rules and value-judgments.

'Falcons' — Top Ranking Patrol At Camporee

Top patrol and the two top trail-wise awards were won by the two patrols of Boy Scout Troop 376 at the annual camporee of the Four Canyons district last weekend.

The Falcons led by patrol leader Joe Mackness, were top ranking patrol of the 45 registered at the event held in Bailey Canyon.

The Grizzly Bears, headed by patrol leader Terry Keily and the Falcons won the first two places in the trail-wise camping competition.

Grizzly Bears, as well as Falcons, earned a Presidential award. This is given to all patrols that score more than 950 out of a possible 1200 points. Falcons earned "toppers," or perfect scores, on knots, first aid and axemanship and fire-building with the Bears winning a topper in axemanship and firebuilding.

Other events on which the Scouts were judged are nature, Scouts' pace, signaling, map and compass and observation. Trail-wise camp competition is based on good backpacking practices. Base camp competition is on a slightly different basis.

Senior patrol leader of the troop is Brian Watts. Other troop members particiapting were Bruce and Richard Garbaccio, John Hoffman, John Hyche, Matt Kitterman, Charles McIntyre, Ron Mangham, Walter and Warren Popp and Camron Stone.

The troop is sponsored by the Episcopal Church of the Ascension and meets Tuesdays at 7 p.m. under the direction of Scoutmaster Robert Campbell and assistant Nolan Mackness.

Pfc. R. Bradley Completes Course

Army Private First Class Randall C. Bradley, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bradley, 541 Foothill Ave., recently completed a five-day Reconnaissance Sergeant course at Chu Lai, Vietnam.

During the course, Pvt. Bradley received instruction in map reading, use of the compass, binoculars and rules of artillery engagement. He is now capable of directing artillery fire and employing gunships if the need arises.

Looking Ahead

New Light on Drug Menace

In Greek Mythology, Narcissus was a beautiful youth who fell in love with his own reflection in the clear pool of a mountain spring. One of New York's foremost psychiatirists and psychoanalysts, Dr. Aaron Stern believes that the nation-wide epidemic of drug misuse among the youth generation has its foundation in a wide-spread Narcissism developed in adolescence. He blames parents whose husband-wife relationship does not reflect true love (causing the child to turn inwardly) and the child himself for his refusal to grow into normal adulthood.

Dr. Stern is Supervising and Training Psychoanalyst at Columbia University's College of Physicians and Surgeons. In recent years he has concentrated on the worsening problem of drug misuse among American youth. He was the kickoff speaker in the most comprehensive (and encouraging) statewide drug seminar ever held in America, the Drug Alert '71 two-day program in Birmingham Jan. 28-29.

Challenging Program

Every Alabama organization and institution cooperated. Governor George Wallace personally participated as did the state's entire educational system, law enforcement establishment, medical society, industrial and labor union leadership, all colors, races and creeds. Approximately 1,000 carefully selected adult and youth leaders from throughout Alabama attended. It was my personal privilege to work with the Kiwanis Clubs, the University School of Medicine, the Birmingham Junior League, the Civitans, Jaycees, Greater Birmingham Foundation, and Operation New Birmingham (the co-sponsors) in shaping up the seminar and to participate as the finale speaker on the program.

The Program brought to Alabama a great array of knowledge and experience in the drug problem. And on the afternoon of the closing day the leadership of the seminar and the governmental and citizen leaders of the state met and pushed forward a "Drug Alert" state-wide program that already is enlisting the resources of the whole commonwealth. Alabama is going to meet and in my opinion, defeat one of the great menaces of all time. Every citizen of every other state, should take heed!

Self Centered Genration?

Dr. Stern based his lecture on three basic propositions which he set forth as follows:

"1. The young in America today are the most Narcissistic generation of adolescents in the history of this country.

"2. They are the most knowing gneration of young, probably in the history of the world (and thus frustrated).

"3. They are the most oppressed society of adolescents we've ever had (oppressed mainly by their inability to cope with the adult world).

"What is happening to young people today," Dr. Stern said, "is that they are under-going the fate of almost every successful society that preceded us." He compared in detail the America today with Gibon's account of the Rise and Fall of Rome, and drew these parallels:

1. Increase in use of drugs.

2. Increase in prevalence of bi-sexuality.

3. Breakdown in capacity to work.

4. A rift between the elders and young of society.

"The younger group in ancient Rome," said Dr. Stern, "sought more and more leisure and less commitment to work for the empire."

Dr. Stern made his strong point: Our young of today have levels of aspirations frequently which are simply overwhelming for them. They want to begin at the point where most of us have attained, and go on from there.

Frustration — Drugs!

"They have increasing difficulty facing frustration and deprivation, and are often unable to compete. They talk about independence. They want to set out on their own. But they (must) accept the monthly check from home, and (to them) that is a devastating price. (They become dependent become dependent because we — most parents — made them dependent!)"

Dr. Stern's advice to parents of young children: "The home should be anchored in the love relationship between the parents. Kids should want that kind of love for themselves and come to recognize they cannot get that unless they grow up and find it for themselves in other human beings. One of the most devastating concepts in growth development is the 'child-centered' home. When you make your little boy a prince and every little girl a princess, why should they ever let go. The outside world will not be so kind. The children will be forced to compete on a different level. Their frustration poses the big problem. Drugs are one of the inadequate solutions."
